IN MEMORY OF JOSEPH PAUL BROWN

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2012

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in memory of my good friend, Joseph Paul Brown, who passed away earlier this year at 86 years young.

Joe Brown was a devoted family man, a realtor and business leader, an avid sportsman, a philanthropist, a mentor, and a role model. A native Southern Californian, Joe traced his roots on his mother's side to the first citizens of California, who arrived in 1775 by crossing the Sonoran Desert with Captain Juan Bautista De Anza.

At age 17, Joe joined the U.S. Coast Guard to serve his country during World War II. After his discharge, he attended Loyola University and graduated in 1950 with a degree in engineering. That same year he married his childhood sweetheart, Lydia T. Brucklemeir. They were married for 57 years until her death in 2004.

In the mid-1950s, Joe began his career as a developer and builder with the Janss Corporation. Through the years he served as president of the Janss Realty Co., which he later purchased, and as a vice president of the Janss Corporation. As such, he assisted in the development of more than 10,000 acres in the Conejo Valley area. One of his first projects was to join in the efforts to bring outside water to the valley, which enabled the area's growth.

As a leader in the Conejo Valley community, Joe helped bring numerous businesses to the area, including the development of the Oaks Mall Shopping Center and the sale of 2,000 acres from the Janss Family to MGM Studios, which had planned to move its operations to the area. While at Janss, he was intimately involved in the planning, development, and marketing of Sun Valley, Idaho, Snowmass-at-Aspen, and Northstar at Tahoe.

But Joe was most proud of his efforts to make the Conejo Valley a great place to live, work, and play. In addition to his successes in business, Joe, a devout Catholic, devoted himself to those in need. He founded the Men's Advisory Board to Mary Health of the Sick and helped form Many Mansions. He was a founding member of the board of Ventura County Community Foundation and volunteered on numerous advisory boards and committees for the City of Thousand Oaks and La Reina High School. He also was a member of the Board of Regents, California Lutheran University.

In recognition of his many successes, Joe was bestowed an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from California Lutheran University.

For his devotion and assistance to the Archdiocese, Joe was knighted into the Order of St. Gregory, the Order of Malta, and the Order of the Holy Sepulcher.

In 2005, Joseph found love for the second time with Dolly Principe. Dolly and Joe had known each other since the 1970s through their competing real estate firms, and over the years had remained friends. Fate brought them together again, and they fell in love and married later that year.

Joe is survived by Dolly; his three children, Joseph A. Brown, Madeleine P. Brown and Mark J. Brown; 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; and many loving friends.

Mr. Speaker, Joseph Paul Brown was a longtime special friend and a talented businessman who was equally successful as a family man and philanthropist. I know my colleagues join me in remembering his great contributions to his community, and in extending our condolences to his family and many friends.
